

finger at Germany among many other countries, which he said were not lending sufficient support to Turkey's fight against terrorism.

German Chancellor Angela Merkel should get well prepared on this issue for her upcoming visit to Turkey, he added, noting that a considerable number of terrorist organizations against the state of the Republic of Turkey were active in Germany. ● HDN

50 years sought for Avci

ISTANBUL - Dogan News Agency

A prosecutor has demanded a sentence of up to 50 years in prison for a former Turkish police chief in the ongoing Revolutionary Headquarters probe, Dogan News Agency has reported.

Hanefi Avci is one of the 89 suspects in the case.

Avci is being held in Istanbul's

Silivri Prison, in connection with the OdaTV trials and the probe into the Revolutionary Headquarters, an armed and outlawed left-wing organization. He was also arrested on the charge of violating the secrecy of an investigation, following the publication of his book, which alleges that the religious Gülen community has covertly taken control of the state.
